Ramadan Village...

A Makhzoumi Foundation & Beirutiyat Initiative

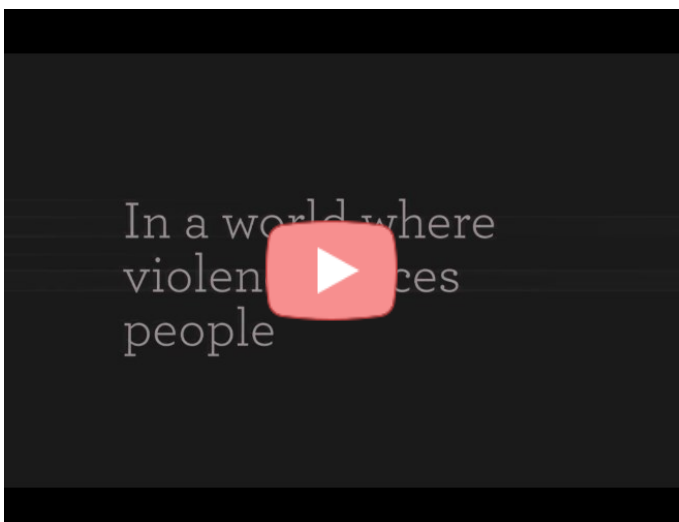

Ramadan Village is a project hosted by Makhzoumi Foundation and Beirutiyat. It provides daily meals to families in need throughout the holy month of Ramadan.

The village hosts every evening hundreds of persons who enjoy the serenity of the place during Iftar time and the entertainment till the end of the evening. The Village puts on various entertainment shows for children by presenters like Al Masrah Al Alami, Glow to Grow and Dr. Mickey the magician.

Other shows from the Ramadan spirit such as the Darawish and the Anashid add to the evening a glimpse of faith and devotion.

Bringing together over 300 volunteers from across Lebanon, Ramadan Village is set in Beirut's Verdun neighborhood to provide thousands of families with home-cooked food and a safe environment to enjoy Iftar. Volunteers in the Village add to the joy of Eid the distribution of clothes to vulnerable families.
